Numb. 4552

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 23. to Saturday June 25. 1709.

It is thought fit, that the Gazette ſhall, for the future, be Publiſh'd three times in the Week, viz. on Tueſday, Thurſday and Saturday; beginning from this Day.

St. James's, June 23.

HER Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to order, That the Brief directed the 16th Inſtant, to be iſſued upon the Petition of the Juſtices of the Peace of Middleſex, for the Collection of the Charity of well diſpoſed Perſons for the Relief of the Germans of the Proteſtant Religion, who, being oppreſſed by the Exactions of the French in their own Country, have fled for Refuge into this Kingdom, be Extended to, and put in due Execution within, the whole Kingdom of Great Britain.

Turin, June 12. N. S. The continual Rains have ſo ſwelled the River Stura, that the Imperial Troops lodged in the Neighbourhood of Caſal, have been obliged to halt for ſome days; but we hear, that on the 10th they paſſed by Orbazzano, and that their advanced Guard was arrived at the Camp of Rivalta: all the other Auxiliaries are in full march thither. His Royal Highneſs hath ſent ſeveral Battalions and ſome Artillery to Fenestrelles, and has cauſed a great quantity of Meal to be tranſported to Suſa, Yvrea and Stafforde. All neceſſary Diſpoſitions are made for opening the Campaign, and the Equipage of his Royal Highneſs is ready for the Field. General Count Thaun, Brother to the Marſhal of that Name, is arrived here to ſerve in our Army, where he is appointed to command the three Regiments which are expected from the Milaneze. His Royal Highneſs hath appointed the Count de Provana to ſucceed Count Tarini in the Quality of Ambaſſador at the Court of Vienna. The Marquis de Tournon is made Captain of his Highneſs's Guards in the room of the Marquis de Coudré, who for ſome time hath been Governor to the Princes; and the Count de la Trinité is to ſucceed the Marquis de Tournon, in the Employment of Equery to his Royal Highneſs.

Milan, June 14. N. S. Count Zarojungen, the Imperial Commiſſary General, has almoſt perfected the Regulation of the Contributions to be paid by all the Princes of Italy. The Grand Duke of Tuſcany hath ſent Monſieur Hordini to endeavour to obtain ſome diminution of the Tax laid upon him, which amounts to 40000 Piſtoles; but that Miniſter has prevailed no farther, than that his Maſter may bring in his Contribution at two Payments. The Miniſters of the Dukes of Parma and Modena have alſo conſented to the Quota allotted their reſpective Maſters; and it is not doubted, but that the Charge which the Duke of Modena has been at in providing Winter-Quarters for the Troops, and the Loſſes which he has ſuſtained by their Marches through his Country, will be taken into Conſideration, and a Deduction made accordingly. The Marquis de Litta, who was ſent to Genoa, to demand the Sum of 20000 Piſtoles of that Republick for their Share in the Expences of the War, is returned from thence without any poſitive Anſwer. It is computed that the whole ariſing from the Contributions in Italy, will amount to 180000 Piſtoles. We hear from Genoa, that they were actually embarking at Final 1500 Imperialiſts, and 800 Milaneze, with 2000 Barrels of Powder, and all other ſort of Warlike Stores, on Board the Men of War and Tranſports commanded by Admiral Whitaker.

Venice, June 15. N. S. On Sunday laſt the Doge performed the annual Ceremony of eſpouſing the Sea with great Magnificence; and in the Evening entertained the Senate and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, who accompanied him, with extraordinary Splendor. The French Ambaſſador did not appear at this Solemnity, being lately offended at the Arreſt of one of his Domeſticks, who was formerly baniſhed from this State. The Pope's two Nephews who were here, ſet out the Day after the Ceremony, in order to return to Rome by the way of Ferrara. They write from Naples of the 4th Inſtant, that the Embarkation of the Troops and Ammunition is ſuſpended until they receive Advices from the Squadron of the Allies. His Catholick Majeſty hath honoured Don Alfonſo Cardonas, Count of Acerra, with the Title of Grandee of Spain; and given the State of Nocerra to Prince Pio, in conſideration of the Services which they have done the Houſe of Auſtria. Letters from Rome import, that the Marquis de Prié hath had a new Conference with Cardinal Paulucci, Secretary of State, after which he ſent back the Courier, who came to him from Milan. This Marquis had alſo an Audience of the Pope, which laſted three hours, concerning the Recognition of King Charles.

Copenhagen, June 18. N. S. Monſieur Roſencrans, who attends His Danish Majeſty in his Journey as Marſhal, and who was ſome time ago Envoy-Extraordinary from hence to the Court of Great Britain, is made Bailiff, or Ampiman, of the Diſtrict of Copenhagen. Monſieur Juel, who has been Appointed to go Envoy-Extraordinary from this Court to that of Muſcovy, ſet out from hence Yeſterday for Koningsburgh, in Order to purſue his Journey by Land from thence to Moſcow. Mr. Crummenfeldt, who was concerned in the late Troubles at Hamburgh, and is Author of a Pamphlet in Juſtification of the Proceedings of thoſe who took Part againſt the Magiſtrates, ſetting out from Holſtein with a Deſign to paſs thro' Copenhagen into Swedeland, was ſeized before the Gates of the City three Days ago, and taken into Cuſtody, having ſome time paſt been ordered to depart out of this Country.

Berlin, June 22. N. S. The laſt Letters from Dreſden inform us, that there had been a great Carouſel at Dreſden, in which there was a Prize valued at 30000 Crowns. The King of Denmark was pleaſed to run; but obſerving that the Prize was induſtriouſly laid for him, ſhunned it; by which Means the Prince of Weiſſenfeildt, who followed the King, became Maſter of it. His Majeſty and King Auguſtus have determined to leave Dreſden on the 26th Inſtant, but deſign to take the Diverſion of Hunting in their way to Potſdam, where they are not expected 'till the ſecond of the next Month. The Courts which attend theſe Princes are ſo numerous, that Perſons of the firſt Rank at Berlin have ſent Baggage and Tents to Potſdam, in order to lye encamped during the Stay of theſe Princes. Neceſſary Orders are diſtributed in the Neighbourhood of that Place for the bringing in Proviſions for ſo great a Concourſe of People of all Qualities as will be there at that time. It being expected, that the Princeſs-Royal may be in Child-birth when the King is at Potſdam, Rockets are prepared in every Village between that Place and this City, to give his Majeſty immediate Notice, by Signal, whether a Prince or Princeſs ſhall be born to her Highneſs. It is believed the three Kings will be Godfathers at the Baptiſm. Monſieur Forſtener, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Duke of Lorrain, is lately returned hither, with Inſtructions from his Maſter to renew his Requeſt, that the German Courts would inſiſt warmly upon the Reſtoration of all Alſatia and Lorrain to the Empire. He is further ordered to deſire, that France may be obliged to repair all the Fortifications in his Maſter's Dutchy, and reſtore them in the ſame Condition as they were in before they were demoliſhed; and that for the future Lorrain may be a Barrier to the Empire. They
